I am writing to you today to share some thoughts on the current situation in our country and to ask for your prayers and support.

As you know, we are facing a number of challenges at the moment, including the COVID-19 pandemic, the war in Ukraine, and the cost of living crisis. These challenges are having a significant impact on the lives of many people in our country, and I know that many of you are feeling anxious and uncertain about the future.

I want to assure you that I am doing everything I can to support you during this difficult time. I am working closely with the government and other organizations to ensure that the needs of the people of London are being met. I am also ng everything I can to support the clergy and churches of our diocese.

I know that many of you are feeling the strain of the current situation. I want to encourage you to seek help if you need it. There are a number of resources available to support you, including the following:

- The Diocese of London website: <https://www.london.anglican.org/>
- The Church of England website: <https://www.churchofengland.org/>
- The Samaritans website: <https://www.samaritans.org/>
- The NHS website: <https://www.nhs.uk/>

I also want to encourage you to pray for our country and for the world. Prayer is a powerful force for good, and I believe that it can make a real difference in the lives of those who are suffering.

I want to thank you for your continued support and prayers. I know that together, we can get through this difficult time and build a better future for our country.

Yours in Christ,

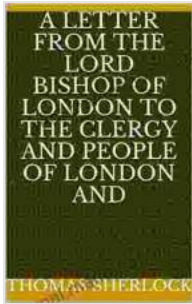

+Sarah
