As darkness descends, an eerie silence envelops the forest, broken only by the crackling of a campfire and the distant hooting of an owl. But the friends soon realize that they are not alone. A mysterious figure lurks in the shadows, watching their every move.

One by one, the friends begin to disappear, vanishing without a trace. Fear and paranoia grip the remaining survivors as they struggle to unravel the mystery behind their companions' fate.

As the body count rises, the friends are forced to confront their own inner demons and decide how far they are willing to go to survive. In a world where morality is tested and the line between right and wrong blurs, they must make impossible choices that will haunt them forever.

Pasture of Swine is a chilling and suspenseful tale that explores the dark side of human nature. It is a story of survival, friendship, and the choices we make when faced with unimaginable horrors.
