

Teaching About Asia in the Time of Pandemic: Asia Shorts

In the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, it is more important than ever to find ways to connect students with the world around them. One way to do this is to teach about different cultures and perspectives. Asia Shorts is a collection of short films that provide a glimpse into the lives of people from all over Asia. These films can be used to teach students about a variety of topics, including culture, history, geography, and social issues.

Asia is the largest continent in the world, and it is home to a wide variety of cultures and perspectives. By teaching about Asia, we can help students to understand the world around them and to develop a more global perspective.
