Pumpkin Carving Contest

The annual pumpkin carving contest was held on Saturday, October 29th, in the town square. This year's contest was the biggest yet, with over 100 entries. The pumpkins were judged on their creativity, originality, and overall execution. The grand prize winner was a pumpkin carved to look like the Union Creek Hotel. The pumpkin was carved by local artist, Sarah Jones. Sarah said that she was inspired to carve the hotel because it is such an iconic part of the town.
