Plot Summary

Lowen Ashleigh, a struggling writer, accepts a job as a ghostwriter for Verity Crawford, a famous author who was left paralyzed and unable to write after a car accident. As Lowen delves into Verity's unfinished manuscript, she uncovers a disturbing autobiography that reveals secrets and hidden truths about the Crawford family.

Soon, Lowen finds herself entangled in a web of deceit and danger. Verity, once a beloved figure in the literary world, emerges as a manipulative and enigmatic character. As Lowen delves deeper into the family's past, she must confront her own vulnerabilities and the limits of her courage.

Characters

Lowen Ashleigh

Lowen is a young and aspiring writer who is desperate for a break. When she accepts the job to ghostwrite Verity Crawford's manuscript, she sees it as an opportunity to finally make a name for herself. However, as she unravels the secrets of the Crawford family, she finds herself in over her head. Lowen is a complex character who is both ambitious and compassionate. She is determined to uncover the truth, but she also struggles with her own inner demons and the desire to protect those she cares about.

Verity Crawford

Verity is a celebrated author who was left paralyzed and unable to write after a car accident. Her unfinished manuscript, which Lowen agrees to ghostwrite, reveals a dark and disturbing past.
